

Come celebrate the Sunshine.

JOIN THE CAUCUS ON TUESDAY, MARCH 12

FOR A SPECIAL RECEPTION AND PANEL DISCUSSION

Letting the Sunshine In: A look back at the 10-year history of the Right To Know Law
and a glimpse of the future.

Legal and policy experts, and veteran journalists assess the issues with public records law.

Panelists will address legal challenges and successes, process guidelines, and tips for users. You'll hear from lawyers familiar with the law, reporters who use it virtually every day, and officials who render judgment on agency appeals. Don't miss this frank discussion of the law's shortcomings and what can be done about them.

Invited guests include representatives from law firms that file lawsuits for records, reporters who file requests and battle bureaucracies, the state's current and former directors of the Office of Open Records, champions of the law in the General Assembly, as well as a leading public policy professor offering an academic perspective.

The event is complimentary and light refreshments will be provided at the reception.
