“Digging for the Truth: Cancer in one Indiana Community”

7 p.m. Tuesday, March 12

Ball State University Alumni Center

Free and open to the public

Investigative Journalist Sandra Chapman, of WTHR-TV Indianapolis, will dig into her experience covering the high rate of childhood cancer in Johnson County, Indiana, since 2015.

Two Franklin, Indiana, community members impacted by the situation will join her during the presentation, which is part of Sunshine Week (March 10-16), an annual nationwide celebration of access to public information.

Hosted in celebration of CCIM’s Centennial Spotlight Month and sponsored by the Departments of Telecommunications and Journalism.
